

SAN MARINO BAY CONDOMINIUMS
ELECTRONIC TRANSMISSION CONSENT FORM

In keeping with Florida State Statute 718, the Association may only maintain on file and utilize unit owner e-mail addresses for those owners who consent to such use in writing for notices of certain board meetings and all membership meetings in lieu of mailed notices. The Association wishes to also have email addresses on file for general courtesy notices. Such use will be only for qualified Association business and such address cannot be publicized or distributed to others without provider consent. In either case, membership meeting notices or general notices, the Association may elect to also mail written notices as required or deemed necessary. Provided emails will be included in official records.

In addition to an owner agreeing to accept notices of meetings via electronic transmission, the Association recommends owners consider permitting the use of e-mails for certain notices such as for general notices applicable to activities and operations of the Association. The below consent is submitted by the undersigned as specified.

EMAIL The undersigned Condominium Owner hereby consents to the use of the indicated e-mail address for the purpose of:

Check one or both
